BOOST FOR CAPTAIN'S CHARITY

CAPTAIN Charles has another course ready for auction – another to boost his charity.

The fund already stands at £1741, which includes £117 from Aspley Guise, plus a further £20 donated by Charles as he was unable to attend Aspley to distribute the usual “penalty sticks”.

Can't be at Letchworth, then Call Stan to bid.

WINNERS AND LOSERS... Steve Langridge had the winning ticket yet again, so it's a free day for him at our next venue. But that really is a crumpled £20 note that was seemingly left for the waitresses at Aspley Guise – but was it rescued in time? See Back Page

WHAT a player! Simon Purkiss has been cut to a miserly handicap of 1.8.

It's all because he's now the proud holder of THREE trophies... the President's Cup, Dennis Sando Cup and now the Autumn Cup.

Simon won his latest at Aspley Guise & Woburn Sands – which played a lot harder than it looked.

The scores tell us that, for not even Simon managed to play to handicap of 2.8 (3).

He carded 35 points to beat Dave O'Brien on countback, who later nearly paid for a prank that back-fired (see pictures). But 11 handicap Dave is mainly kicking himself for three and four-putting five times to miss out on the Group 1 prizemoney.

John Silverosa scored 33 points, but it was Colin Andrews who h o

FIRST AMONG EQUALS... Treasurer Robert pockets the Group 3 cash, while (centre) Vice-Captain Colin Andrews presented himself the Group 2 prize, but near-professional Simon Purkiss has his third trophy, the Autumn Cup claimed the Group 2 prize with the same 33. And 30 points were enough to hand the Group 3 spoils to Robert Clayton.

Top guest: Bernard Cook 32, off 15.

Nearest pins: 4th – Steve Hickey; 13th Daniel Deveney.

The morning Aphid Pairs (played 4BBB) saw Colin Andrews and Peter Lacey compile a super better ball score of 23 points.

There were joint runners-up with 22 points but claiming second place on countback were Sid and Ted Platten, over Steve Langridge and Roger Butcher, making a very welcome and first appearance since March due to an operation.

IN the Concorde Pairs KO semi-finals, Bhupi Patel and Suru great run was finally halted.

They went down 3&2 to the hands of by fellow Mill Green members Gwyn Ellis and Robert Clayton.

Dave O'Brien is still top but David Grainge has closed the gap to one point, while Ted Platten and Steve Langridge are also right up there. Victory at Letchworth could snatch the title.

SALVAGED... A prank that nearly went wrong, for Dave O'Brien shows the crumpled £20 note that he put on his plate – but should have disappeared when he left to go to the loo.
