FIRST TROPHY THIS CENTURY... Damien Turley last won in the '90s, so he was especially delighted to receive the Eric Attfield trophy from Captain Steve at Mill Green. But Damien only just won on countback from John Silverosa (right). In third place was Steve Foster (below, left), followed by Kevin Johnston who's having a great laugh over his nearest pin.

DAMIEN Turley raided his memory bank to conjure up a brilliant win at Mill Green – his first since Finchley back in the '90s.

But despite scoring 40 points it was a close run thing, for Damien only got the verdict on a countback over John Silverosa.

John is a member of two clubs – Mill Green and Gog Magog – and top scored at both.

He won the Spring Plate at Gog Magog and so nearly won the trophy at Mill Green.

The trophy he missed out on is the splendid Eric Attfield Memorial Cup, donated by former secretary Mike Litchfield.

In third place with 38 points was Steve Foster, followed by Kevin Johnston on 37 points.

Kevin and John Silverosa also mopped up the nearest pins prizes.

2 GAMES IN 1
THREE McMullens Singles matches were combined with our Mill Green event.

They were Colin Andrews who got off to a flier to go 4-up after four holes against Steve Nisbett.

But Steve fought back and only lost on the 18th.

John Waters beat Peter Lacey 3&2 and Ian Mitchell scored a shock 2&1 verdict over Richard Nisbett.

Steve Langridge and Ken Gordon enjoyed the running fairways and smooth greens of the Nazeing Course far more than the home team of Clive Ackerman and David Grainge.

Why? Because the visitors galloped to 7-up after 10 holes, all due to steady driving and accurate putting.

A three-hole comeback – highlighted by David's 70ft birdie putt on the 12th – could not be sustained, ending in a final score of 5 & 4.

David Grainge played host to Trevor Downham at Great Hadham, resulting in a close match from start to finish with the lead constantly changing.

A better short game gave Trevor the upper hand on back nine. He was 2-up with two to play, until David managed to win 17.

However, an out of bounds up the last by David gave Trevor a 2-up victory.

Playing at Pansanger Nick MacDermott beat Steve Temple 4&3 – and at the same time Steve and Colin Andrews lost their Pairs match 3&1 to Nick MacDermott and Steve Campbell.

SAME-AGAIN SUSPECTS LEAD THE ECLECTIC

JOHN Waters won the Eclectic last year and is right up there again, but David Grainge tops the table this time.

THAT'S RICH... Yes, Richard Nisbett had just won a free day at our next venue, Canons Brook on Wednesday June 19

I DON'T BELIEVE IT, HE'S BOUND TO DROP IT... That's what Chris Murray seems to be saying to himself as Damien tenuously leaves the stage, barely clinging to the trophy just presented to him by captain Steve Nisbett.

Right: No, it wasn't broken, just the club needed to be replaced to hand again.
