It's
on!

WINNERS THREE... Captain Brian West presents cheques to Group 1 winner Phil Greenwold (left), Group 3 and cup winner Damien Turley, and Group 2 winner Robert Clayton.

DESERTED... John McNaughton receives the Aphid Pairs cup from captain Brian West, but partner Rob Adams disappeared.

PRO PERFORMANCE... Matt Bannister easily topped guests

THERE'S no stopping Damien Turley it seems, for he was cut SIX shots after two wins and a 2nd last year – and now he's added the President's Cup to his trophy cabinet.

Saffron Walden proved a tough track as always – the average score was only 27 points – but Damien carded 38 points off his lowest ever h/cap of 19.

They say money always goes to money, so it should come as no surprise that treasurer Rob Clayton won the Group 2 prize with 36 points.

And Phil Greenwold, making his first appearance of the season got straight back to his winning ways by lifting the Group 1 prize with 34 points. Playing off scratch (0) Matt Bannister topped the guests with 34 points.

I'M FREE... Roger Bukin won the free-day ticket to play John O'Gaunt.

A former assistant pro at Nazeing, Matt was the guest of Kevin Johnstone whose son Robert Johnstone (7) claimed the second guest prize with 32 pts.

Nearest Pins: 5th, Charles Wallis; 18th, David Grainge.

Several big scores contended the Aphid Pairs trophy (played 4BBB) headed by two 25-pointers for nine holes.

John McNaughton and Rob Adams got the verdict on countback over captain Brian West and Roger Bukin.

Three pairings then contested third place on 24 points, with Steve Langridge and Dan Todd getting the last prize on countback, over Roger Butcher /John Tass and Sid Platten/Steve Temple.

WEEKEND BACK ON

DUNSTON Hall was in doubt, due to hiked prices and unhelpful tee times. But I'm happy to report that tee times are sorted – and the price will be the same great deal we set up three years ago... £85 Dinner, bed, breakfast and Monday lunch.

But you must pay £50 deposit by August 5.

19th NOT THE BAR

IT was neck-and-neck all the way for Peter Waters and Andy Alexander in their clash in the McMullen Singles championship – but there were no drinks at the 19th, for they had to play it.

Peter won that extra hole verdict, so he now meets Great Hadham club colleague David Grainge.

Meanwhile, Gary Sando was comfortably leading Steve Temple after the first nine at Canons Brook. But Steve turned it all round in the second half to win 2-up.

Phil Greenwold and Andy Alexander coasted through to the second round of the Concorde Darts Pairs after beating David Morris and Stan Kelley 4&3 at Mill Green – Andy making a birdie winner.

That match was following Steve Langridge and Ken Gordon who beat Brian West and John McNaughton by the same margin.

HIP-HIP HOORAY

BOB Pegg, our 2001 Captain, has made a remarkably quick recovery after having an operation for a new hip in April.

He played his first game

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Your best FIVE scores out of eight to count, so you can miss three events

David Grange appears to be running away with it, but a couple of decent results from quite a few other could make all the difference. Remember, it's your best five results that count.
