XMAS SCRAMBLE

HIS handicap had been slashed TEN SHOTS from 28 to 18, but Damien Turley still piled on the points – the only man to play to his handicap at Porters Park

Damien scored 37 points, from just 15 holes – he blobbered the other three holes.

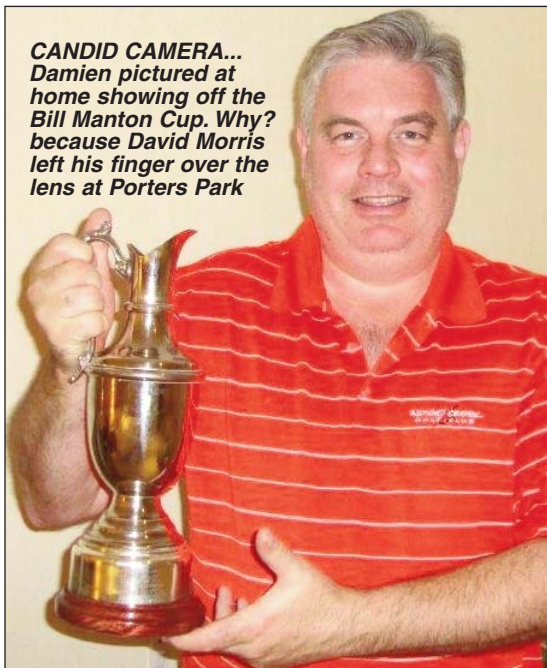

His reward, apart from a further two-shot cut, is the Bill Manton Cup – a trophy that captain David Grainge did his best to win for the second year running. But David did at least top Group 1 (h'caps 0-12) with 32 points.

The same 32 points score earned the Group 3 prize for Steve Foster. But just missing out were Clive Ackerman (35) and Sid Platten (33) who finished behind Damien in Group 2.

Top guest: Robert Johnston 34 points.

Nearest pins (you guessed it) Damien 6th hole; Harry Bracher 14th.

CANDID CAMERA...

CATCH HIM IF YOU CAN

Damien's big win at Porters Park has catapulted him into the lead of the Eclectic.

He's two points clear of Sid Platten and Steve Foster.

Damien Turley 49
Sid Platten 47
Steve Foster 46

PLAYING BY THE RULES?

NOTE. You must (a) the give opponents three dates in three different weeks, and (b) the deadline for playing the first round of the Knockouts is June 7 (our date for Whipsnade).

Double hit for Roger

Captain David Grainge is rubbing shoulders with Roger Butcher in the hope that some of his luck might rub off. Little wonder, for Roger drew the lucky Free Day winner for the second time running at Porters Park.

Now that's the kind of double-hit we all want!
