NO ONE went away empty handed at Welwyn Garden City, for Captain Clive had prizes for everyone.

Grabbing the Captain's Cup with 41 points was Mick Millen, followed by his playing partner Gary Sando on 39pts – and the same score secured third place for Steve Langridge.

Robert Pegg and Dave O'Brien were right on their heels with 37 and 36pts.

Gary's guest

Bob Higgins was top invite with 33pts off 11.

The morning 9-hole Crescendo saw Steve Langridge clean up again with first place alongside David Grainge and Mike Barry.

Captain Clive Ackerman claimed second place with new member Dave Jolly and Dave O'Brien. As it was Captain's Day there was a surprise in store – nearest pins on all 18 holes!

What it meant was that the par-5s were nearest in three shots; the par-4s were nearest in two, while the par-3s were nearest in one as usual.

Once again Steve Langridge topped the claimers with nearest pins on 4th and 7th; Gary Sando also had two (3rd and 16th), and Harry Bracher also two (11th and 15th).

Others earning packs of balls for nearest pins: new member Ray Whitehead, Robert Clayton, Nick MacDermott, Bhupi Patel, Peter Lacey, Dave O'Brien. The other several holes failed to be claimed, due mainly to the strong wind.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Your best FIVE scores out of eight to count, so you can miss three events

ROBERT Pegg could be our 2017 champion if he puts in enough appearances. But Dave O'Brien is the front-runner, with reigning champion Steve Langridge right up there again.

Country Club. They chose the New Course.

David sent in this report:

"I scored 20 points on the front nine, yet I was one down at the turn!!

"Peter was never behind the whole match, although I did manage to get back level on five separate occasions.

"Despite my making two birdies and seven pars, Peter finally finished me off on the par-5 18th. He played very well with excellent driving and good all round play – and he used his handicap advantage (11 shots) very well."

David concluded: "The greens were as good as any I've played and the course was in really great condition."

SHOCK

Bhupi has made a shock victory over reigning champion Steve Langridge.

They played on Sunday

UP, UP, UP... to a Crescendo winning trio – Mike Barry, David Grange and Steve Langridge (right) get there prizes from captain Clive Ackerman

WELCOME

...to Dave Wheeler, introduced by Mill Green member John Silverosa. Dave signed up on Capain's Day

(25th) on Mill Green's parched fairways and greens souped-up for the Club championships. Steve managed to go from 2-up to 1 down at the end. What a scalp for Bhupi!

Sadly, Kevin Johnston is suffering a chest infection and has been told to rest. The infection forced Kevin to miss Captain's Day and now he and partner Damien Turley are having to give a walkover to Gary Sando and Mick Millen.

True or False: You are entitled to free relief from a boundary fence or wall that marks the out-of-bounds line.

False. These are not obstructions and are deemed to be fixed. Thus, the player is not entitled to relief.
