HOT 4x4s TO WIN - Back Page

The greens quickly flooded...

...so much so that the last two groups in the morning were unable to play the 7th, 8th and 9th at South Beds.

We were playing in heavy rain for the annual Three Club trophy event, in which Steve Foster had been the clubhouse leader with a fabulous 24 points for the full nine holes. But those flooded greens forced a rethink though.

Because of the flooded greens the contest had to be reduced to just six holes. Fortunately though that didn't affect the result, for Steve still lifted the trophy with 15 points.

New member Lee Davis made second place with 13 points off 10 (20 for the nine holes), followed by Roger Butcher 12 (19) points.

Top guest was winner Steve Foster's invite Maurice Brown on 9pts.

However, we lunched so well that the Sun shone for the afternoon Eric Attfield trophy event. But, as always happens, Steve Foster failed to perform anywhere near as well with a full set of clubs as he did with just three.

Instead, 28 handicap Steve Hickey stole the show with a rare 38pts winner. That not only secured the trophy and replica, but also earned him the Group 3 prize of course.

Right on his heels in Group 3 was Bhupi Patel with 37pts. But the same score earned the Group 1 prize (h/caps 0-13) for Steve Langridge. And 36 was enough to secure the Group 2 (14-18 h/caps) money for Mike Barry.

Nearest pins: 12th Steve Campbell; 17th Colin Andrews; nearest in two at 7th Ted Platten.

TOP ECLECTIC

THE top players at South Beds all figure in our Eclectic leaderboard:

HOT 4x4s FOR YOU?

ASHRIDGE

SOUTH BEDS

THAT 4x4 got you guessing, but 4x4 is certainly up for grabs.

Look at the car on Page 1 and the clue's in the wheels with the badges. It's four 4-balls all kindly donated by Ashridge, Gog Magog, Old Fold and South Beds.

They'll be auctioned in aid of our captain's charity next week at Old Fold Manor.

Can't be there then put in a bid beforehand with me, Stan Kelley.
